Year of Establishment: 2021
Coverage: 22 villages
Shareholders: 750 farmers

Building a Stronger Future for Farmers

Smallholder farmers in Muzaffarpur district, Bihar, have traditionally faced challenges such as fluctuating market prices, high agricultural input costs, limited access to farm machinery and dependence on intermediaries. To address these issues, farmers came together in 2021 to establish Kanti Kisan Producer Company Limited, creating a collective platform to strengthen agricultural productivity, improve market access, and enhance farmers' livelihoods.

Now, the FPO serves 750 shareholders across 22 villages, promoting collective farming initiatives, business development and sustainable agricultural practices.

Promoting Scientific and Sustainable Farming

Kanti Kisan Producer Company Limited supports farmers through its agricultural input business, providing quality seeds, fertilisers and eco-friendly bio-products at competitive prices. Training and technical guidance from government departments and domain experts have encouraged farmers to adopt systematic cropping patterns and use agricultural inputs more efficiently.

Through its Custom Hiring Centre, the FPO also facilitates access to agricultural machinery, reducing the need for individual investment in expensive equipment.

As CEO Md Alamgeer explains, "By adopting a systematic cropping pattern and gaining the right knowledge, we learned to use the right quality and quantity of inputs at the right time, which has helped us improve productivity."

Expanding Market Access Through Value Addition

To reduce dependence on traditional intermediaries, the FPO has developed diverse marketing channels, connecting farmers with institutional buyers, government procurement opportunities at Minimum Support Prices (MSP) and digital platforms such as e-NAM.

The organisation has also moved beyond selling raw agricultural produce by cleaning, packaging and branding wheat and scented rice. Through retail channels, ONDC and its local outlet, the FPO is creating opportunities to reach wider markets and capture greater value from agricultural products.
